AUDITOR JANSSEN RELEASED CORRECTIONS AUDIT

LINCOLN, NE – Nebraska State Auditor Charlie Janssen released the Nebraska Department of Corrections Services attestation report today, Monday, November 2, 2015.

The report was released today due to the size and to give the Senators and everyone adequate time to read it prior to the hearing being held on Wednesday, November 4, 2015.

The report will be discussed at the Dept. of Correctional Services Special Investigative Committee (LR34) hearing on Wednesday, November 4, 2015, in the State Capitol, Room 1113, at 1:30 p.m. The hearing is open to the public. The full audit report is over 175 pages and has 60 findings pertaining to the lack of financial accountability within the Department. It is available on our website at: www.auditors.nebraska.gov.

At this time, I will reserve any further comment until the hearing on Wednesday, November 4, 2015 and I will be available for public comments after the hearing. Thank you for your patience and we hope to see you at the public hearing concerning this very important matter.
